Connecting European Business with Africa

Afric

- Afric, Connecting European Business with Africa
- Afric connects European companies with the great economic opportunities that Africa offers, in particular Chad.
- With our vast experience, expertise and extended network, we are in a unique position to promote European companies wishing to create and develop business on the African continent.
- Afric is taking the lead in the creation of beneficial relationships between Europe and Africa, encouraging sustainable economic development.

Afric

- Afric promotes trade in Africa by providing European companies the tools they need to succeed in various regions and different markets across the Continent. By organising numerous events throughout the year, Afric offers its customers and associates a valuable networking opportunities that solidify new B2B and B2G relationships.

- The Annual Trade Mission on Agro-Industry in Chad is a fine example of this. In addition, Afric organises seminars, workshops, communication sessions and financial services for its customers, as well as opportunities enabling them to converge on this principal objective: Doing business in Africa.

- At Afric, we are always ready to meet your needs and to connect African and in particular Chadian business opportunities with Europe, by providing the best tools and services.
